Week Beginning: 20th April 2020

Watch RWInc phonics each day as your starting point. These will recap sounds you already know or show you a new one.

Set 1 speed sounds will run at 9.30am

Each day the sessions can be found on 'Read Write Inc phonics lessons at home' on YouTube and are available for 24 hours. The children are used to how the sessions work as we use Fred, my turn/your turn, speed sounds and the pictures and phrases.

Can you use magnetic / foam / handwritten letters to build up a word?

It can be a word beginning with your RWInc phoneme or a word that has it in the middle or at the end.

Can you go on a phonics hunt?

Find a selection of items from around the house which begin with the sound of the day.

This could be i.e m—mug, mat, mitten or milk

Can you play a Kim's Game with a selection of items?

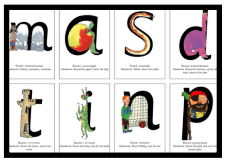

It is easy to play. You put all the items under a tea towel then the person you are playing with takes one away without you seeing. Can you remember what was there? Can you work out which one is missing?

Can you make your own phonics cards just like the ones we have in our class?

When you have made them you could be the teacher and show your cards to your toys or your grown up.

Can you chose a picture book to share?

Share your favourite story—it could be one of our favourite Julia Donaldson books. Do you know the story? Can you say what happens next? Can you describe your favourite character? Can you spot any phonemes that you know or any red words ie, I, the, to, no go, into.
