

Year 4

English

Read about the great explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton, discovering the great trials and tribulations he and his men faced on their epic Antarctic voyage. Focus on using persuasive techniques to produce adverts and a persuasive speech. Explore environmental issues and concentrate on writing to inform.

Regular reading activities to develop comprehension skills.

Maths

Develop quick recall of multiplication and division facts; solve problems using times tables; practising written methods for multiplication and division; learn about fractions and decimals. Use a range of strategies to practise and recall times table facts.

RE

Continue to learn about the Islamic faith, Find out about mosques and why they are special places for Muslims.

Geography

Understand and use the eight points of a compass; discover the seven continents of the world; name the hemispheres on a world map and explore countries within Europe. Investigate what biomes are; focusing closely on the climate and terrain of the ice and tundra biomes of the polar regions.

Science

Explore 'living things and their habitats'. Group and classify animals; Explore their habitats. Write a non-chronological report about an Antarctic animal, Explore food chains, the human body and the digestive system.

Home is where THE HEART IS

Music & Computing

Online lessons provided by Lincolnshire Music Services.

E-safety and coding.

Art and DT

Research, study and imitate the work of both artists 'Nerys Levy' and 'George Marston', in their depictions of Antarctica.

French

Learn celebrations in France.

Learn fruity vocabulary.

Translate a poem from French to English

PE

Online activities provided by Inspire+

Joe Wicks online sessions.

Spellings

Explore and use spelling patterns following Year 4 Spelling Shed scheme.

Learn to spell words from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling list.

Weekly spelling test.

The Christian Values we are reflecting upon are: Perseverance and Forgiveness. We will also be revisiting previous values of Friendship & Fellowship.