

Mighty Hub of Creativity

The Mighty Creatives is the Artsmark bridge organisation for the East Midlands and have signposted some online arts activities which you might like to explore.

Museum and Heritage Suggestions

Harley Gallery: <https://www.harleygallery.co.uk/>

Suitable for key stage 1 and 2 children

Based on the Welbeck Estate in North Notts, the Harley Gallery normally runs a fantastic programme of exhibitions, events, workshops and activities. Their website currently hosts a brilliant range of creative activities for all ages, many of which are accompanied by helpful worksheets. Ideas include 'Make a Lego self portrait', exploring Warli painting, and 'Make your own feather wreath'. Share your creations with the Harley Gallery by posting a picture to social media using #Harleyathome.

Roald Dahl Museum <https://www.roalddahl.com/museum>

Suitable for: key stage 1 and 2

As pretty much everyone knows Roald Dahl was one of the world's most imaginative, successful and loved storytellers. Since his death in 1990 his work has not only endured but is still increasing in popularity. His stories are currently available in 59 languages!

Chatsworth House Art in Nature <https://www.chatsworth.org/art-archives/>

Suitable for: key stage 1 and 2

Learn looking and drawing techniques by getting out in the fresh air and exploring the visual beauty in our local, natural habitats - whether the park or woodland, your garden, the playground or even fresh fruit or vegetables in your kitchen will do. One of a whole range of online worksheet activities offered by Chatsworth House.
