

On behalf of the staff and pupils at our school, the English Team would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for the generous donations of fantastic books we received from parents, carers and friends of the school. We are thrilled with the beautiful selection we were given! These books have been distributed to the appropriate age groups throughout the school and will greatly enhance the reading experience for our children.

Thank you very much!